Public Comment:

Mr. Dave Wagner, Old Butler Road, stated that there is a storm water issues in the area near his home. Solicitor Perrotta stated that if the township cannot go onto private property and take action. If a dangerous condition exists it will be reviewed through the storm water and zoning ordinances. Mr. Perrotta stated that he is willing to meet privately to discuss the issue.

Mr. Sam Garver, Dean Drive, asked if the Savannah Road paving project would be milled first before resurfacing. Gregg DelPrincipe, Township engineer explained that ideally milling would be best but it would be cost prohibitive to do so.

Mr. Ken Langford, Shenango Greens, wished to thank Mr. Albertini and John Kreuger for the assistance they provided with the annual garage sale and the EMA information.

Mr. Manny Weinschenk, Pennsylvania Avenue, asked if the sirens still are sounded during a tornado warning. Mr. Herman stated that they are not at this time.

Motion by Mr. Albertini second by Mr. Riley to adjourn. Motion carried.
