Mr. Oran Allen Savannah Gardner Road, stated that he is looking for road repairs on Old Pittsburgh Road. Mr. Albertini said that Columbia Gas must make a major high pressure line repair on Old Pittsburgh Road, once that is done additional repairs will be made. Mr. Allen also congratulated Mr. Russell Riley on his winning the supervisors election.

Mr. William Alexander, Savannah Gardner Road, asked if the township was looking to purchase a paving machine. Mr. Herman stated that he believes that they located one and will know more shortly.

Bill Konopasec, Monsour Drive, asked if the storm drains located at the end of Monsour Drive are the responsibility of the township? Mr. Herman stated that the storm drain in question are not on the ordained portion of the roadway, so the responsibility falls on the developer.

Melanie Konopasek, Monsour Drive, asked if speed limit signs or watch children could be placed in the development.

The supervisors wished all a good Thanksgiving and Veterans Day.

Motion by Mr. Herman second by Mr. Peters to adjourn.
