Public Comment:

Mr. Richard Bintrim, stated that storm water and sedimentation are running onto his property and would like it stopped. Mr. Peters stated that neighboring property owner will correct the problem.

Mr. Chuck Johnson, asked if Zoning meetings are open to public comment. Solicitor Cilli stated that yes public comment is permitted. He then asked the hours of the Zoning Officer, Mr. Herman stated the hours are 9 -1 daily and by appointment. Mr. Johnson also asked the process of releasing of an un-ordained paper street. Solicitor Cilli stated that there is a process after 21 years it may revert to the adjoining property owners.

Mr. Oran Allen, Savannah Gardner Road, asked is anything has been done in regards to an audit of records of the former tax collector. Solilcitor Cilli stated that the bonding company was notified, however, it was not established that anything was missing only that the records were not legible, most likely a posting error and the former collector is not able to provide the information needed.

Mrs. June Duda, Willowbrook Road, stated that she had a complaint in regards to a police officer and how an incident was handled, with a neighbor's swimming pool. Mr. Herman stated that incident would be reviewed.
