Public Comment:

Mr. Bill Alexander, Savannah Gardner Road, asked about residents who don't have the 911 address signs. Mr. Albertini stated that a plan has been developed with the police and fire departments and letters are being sent to those who do not have a sign. Mr. Alexander also stated that a sign is down on Rt. 65. and roads need to be swept. Mr. Albertini stated that PennDot has been notified about the sign and that the roads are being swept throughout the township.

Mr. Oran Allen, Savannah Gardner Road, asked when the Annual Audit would be published in the newspaper. Mr. Herman stated that it would be in the paper within the next few weeks. Mr. Allen also asked about a problem with individual employee supplemental insurance. Mr. Herman stated that the problem was recently discovered and it was being rectified on an individual basis. Mr. Allen also pointed out the duties of the Treasurer as it relates to this matter.

Mr. Herman presented a list of roads that are part of the plan for sewer expansion as it relates to the DEP mandate and the Act 537 Plan.
