Motion by Richard Schweinsberg second by Joseph Budai to set aside May 9, 1992 for annual clean up day in Shenango Township.

Citizens questioned if a new pump house was constructed what will be done with the existing structure. The supervisors informed the citizens that the existing structure would be used for storage purposes. Mr. James Bintrim stated that the board is only using the existing structure for storage purposes to save a financial loss to one board member.

Mr. James Bintrim questioned the Board on Federal Surplus items which had been purchased within the last year. Mr. Bintrim stated that the total cost to the Township for the items was $85,000 and went on to list some of the items which had been purchased. Mr. Bintrim went on to question the whereabouts of some of these items.

Supervisor Budai stated that Mr. Bintrim had virtually caught him off guard in that he was unaware that $85,000 worth of materials had been purchased by the Township. He instructed Police Chief Anthony DeCarbo to do a thorough investigation to find the whereabouts of items not on the Township's premises.

Mr. Ed Gallagher, Old Pittsburgh Road, requested signs be erected on the two hills of the Old Pittsburgh Road to deter littering which is currently occurring.

Motion by Richard Schweinsberg second by Joseph Budai to adjourn.
