Public Comment:

Mr. Larry Bintrim requested time sheets and wanted to know why he would need a court order to get them. Supervisor Schweinsberg stated that this was the recommendation by the ethics commission in regards to the time sheets.

Deborah Taylor, Union Valley Road, asked what can be done about the dust problem associated with the excavating being done by Medusa. DEP has already been contacted.

Tim Tomko, Union Valley Road, is also concerned with the dust problem and asked what could be done.

Robert Tomko, stated that the dry wall in his remolded bathroom has cracked due to the blasting being done.

Tom Defrisha, Turkey Hill Road, also is concerned with the dust problem, he has contacted Medusa and was told that his home would be washed in the spring and that he would receive a letter to that effect.

Supervisor Schweinsberg stated that township is also concerned with the problem and will contact both DEP and Medusa to try and resolve the problem.

Attorney Gabe Cilli suggested that the residents request that DEP place Dust Collectors in their yards and to continue to call DEP.

Motion by Andrew Piccuta second by Richard Flora to adjourn.
